2. Approval of Minutes, 1/13/21 -Motion approved
3. Treasurers’ Report – Eddie: $82,000 on hand. Budget still not final.
4. Co-Presidents’ Report – another fundraiser in works. Pilates fundraiser. More info in committee briefings.
5. Principal’s Update –
 - a. Maggie got second dose today
 - b. 1st grade going back for more in-person days due to vaccinations
 - c. After break, sitting down with each teacher to assess reading and math needs (whether certain kids need extra support or support advanced kids need more)
 - d. When we return, 4 more months left and typically those last 4 months go by quickly.
 - e. 2nd, 3rd and 5th - no change in terms of in-person days.
6. Bridge the Gap Update -
 - a. Recap on BTG - have raised about $29k, 15.5% participation, $750 per kid, can do one time or recurring. Most effective and direct way to raise money this year due to lack of other fundraising events.
7. Committee Briefings:
 - a. Trivia Nights - very successful and a blast!
 - b. SO Fun City Series - first one last night, sign up for 6 more!
 - c. Comedy Night - Ashley is organizing
 - d. Spring Auction - probably a virtual event

8. 250 Water Update - Megan update:
 - a. Brownfield: volunteer remediation HH entered into via the state. They get perks for voluntarily being enrolled in it.
 - b. Laura's contract to be our independent community monitor is complete. If we as a community want her to continue assisting (or another one).
 - c. Laura will be at enviro protection meeting for CB1 at end of february.<https://www1.nyc.gov/site/manhattancb1/index.page>
9. CEC Update - Emily: CEC meeting last night - the new superintendent for District 2 was there. Amnesty resolution for repayment of funds due to dropped enrollment passed--need to exert political pressure about it.
 - a. There's an election coming up for CEC board. Cecd2.net Emily is running again but shouldn't dissuade anyone from running.
10. Meeting Finalized – Meeting close – 30 seconds
